To the student: Tell us about yourself!

How do you like to spend your free time?

What do you like most about art?

Why do you want to participate in Side by Side?

What do you want to do when you grow up?

To the parent or guardian: help us make this a successful experience for your student.

Does your student have any triggers or sensory issues we need to know about? If so, please describe:

Are there things that your student finds particularly distracting or overwhelming in a classroom setting? If so, please describe:

What are some of your student's strengths? (they don't have to be art-related):

Would you find it helpful to meet with our Side by Side program coordinator, face-to-face before the first class? And/or would your student benefit from a chance to see the classroom and meet the instructor before the first class?

If you have any questions about this form or information requested on it, contact the Side by Side coordinator, Leah Bradley, leahbradley07@gmail.com.
